The government offices in Whitehall are supposed to use "red tape" pretty freely," but the supply in London is nothing to what it is in India. Let us outline briefly the true history of Babu Tara Chand, late of the subordinate branch of the Indian civil service. The story is true.

Babu Tara Chand was a deputy subassistant clerk in the cutcherry of a deputy collector in the Swankibugh district of southern Bengal. The inland postage rate in India at that period was three ples, or about 1 farthing, for letters weighing one tola.

One fine day when the officials had value of three ples (1 farthing) had been unaccounted for. The stamp could be clearly traced to the desk Thence it had disappeared.
